The Virginia Society of The National Society Colonial Dames of XVII Century has created a competitive scholarship to honor the service of one of our members to the Society and to the United States Intelligence Community.

It is called the Mary Virginia Clyde Intelligence Community Scholarship.

Ms. Clyde was an active member of The National Society Colonial Dames XVII Century for 28 years and served in the Office of Strategic Services and the Central Intelligence Agency for 30 years.

The Clyde Scholarship will provide a $1000.00 award to a deserving male or female student that is planning to obtain an undergraduate or post-graduate degree in intelligence-related studies.

The student must be an American Citizen.

The student must be admitted to one of the following schools in order to apply:

- George Mason University
- James Madison University
- Liberty University
- Marymount University
- Norfolk State University
- Old Dominion University
- Regent University
- University of Mary Washington
- University of Virginia
- Virginia Commonwealth University
- Virginia Polytechnic Institute and State University
- William and Mary University

Degrees in the following fields are acceptable:

- Intelligence Studies
- Computer Science
- Data Science
- Cybersecurity
- International Affairs
- Criminology
- Public Safety Administration
- Foreign Language
- Forensic Accounting
- Psychology

The deadline for applications is July 1 of each year. The winner will be announced on August 15.

There will be one winner per year. Students may reapply the following year.

Thank you.
